Meet
Our Team

Joseph Mokuia Manyara

Senior Partner at MNW & Advocates LLP and Director at MNW Consultants

With over 3 years of experience as an Advocate of the High Court of Kenya, Mokuia Manyara has a pedigree in litigation at the Supreme Court of Kenya. He has appeared before the highest court in Kenya to appeal a judgment passed by the Appeal Court in relation to a dispute case relating to Mandera County Government.

Notably, Mr. Mokuia has been part of a case where three former students sued HELB for exorbitant penalties and interest rates by invoking section 44A of the banking Act. He also pursued a suit against Stanbic Bank for allowing an imposter to open an account and take a loan on behalf of the client without his knowledge and consent.

Similarly, Mr. Mokuia is adept at political parties' disputes, having represented several parties at the Political Parties Dispute Tribunal at the High Court and the Court of Appeal. He was solely involved in the conduct of Kisumu Election Petition, Appeal 001 of 2022 where he successfully reversed Wiper Party's decision to issue a nomination certificate to a party other than their client.

Mr. Mokuia has also appeared before the Supreme Court on a Public Interest matter where his client had appealed a Court of Appeal decision concerning the utilization of county funds whose budgetary process was the gist of the dispute in court.

Furthermore, he was in charge of the dispute at the Political Parties tribunal where Maendeleo Chap Party and Party of Unity sought revocation of their inclusion in Azimio La Umoja Coalition Political Party.

Mr. Mokuia is also a certified Legal and Compliance Auditor, a passionate sports lawyer, and a host and moderator of various webinars including election laws preparedness talk for the August 2022 Kenyan elections which was hosted by a leading elections law expert and litigator, Mr. Omwanza Ombati. Mr. Mokuia has also hosted regional and global webinars particularly in the realm of sports law where he has hosted distinguished scholars and practitioners like Juan de Dios Crespo.

Mokuia is an LLM student at the University of Nairobi and prides himself with deep knowledge, values, and ethics in his career progression.

Njeru Benjamin

Managing Partner at MNW & Advocates LLP and Director at MNW Consultants Limited

An Honors graduate from the University of Nairobi (LLB), Njeru is an expert in complex civil litigation, intellectual property rights, constitutional advocacy, and sports disputes resolutions.

Njeru is a certified Public Secretary (CS) with extensive knowledge in corporate advisory and tax disputes. He also advises clients on legal compliance, with a complicated array of Kenyan laws and constitutional principles. He reviews policies, provides sustainable solutions to legal disputes, and offers training to companies.

During his tenure at FIDA Kenya, he was tasked to reinforce women's property rights in view of the Constitution of Kenya 2010. He is part of a legal team at 'Usikimye' which battles sexual and gender-based violence.

In 2021, Njeru was recognized by the Law Society of Kenya as one of the finalists in the Nairobi Legal Award, Phoenix Edition for the Young Lawyer of the Year.

Prior to establishing the firm, he worked at a top law firm in Nairobi where he honed his drafting skills in litigation and business writing. Njeru is licensed to practice within the Republic of Kenya.

When he is not challenging corporate and sports giants in the courtrooms, Njeru enjoys barbecues with friends as they mull over current affairs.

Fidel Castro

Fidel Castro Owino has worked as a Student Intern at MNW& Advocates LLP for close to a year now. He is handy to the firm with his professional writing, drafting skills and the extensive legal research and review capabilities.

Fidel's interests, which are aligned with Commercial Litigation, Tax, Insurance and the course for Social Justice and Human rights, are key cornerstones of the legal profession which he seeks to tap from the firm. His skills and improvement are an embodiment of the firm's commitment to nurture and mentor upcoming lawyers who will prospectively join the junior bar.

Castro, who is in his last year of his undergraduate studies at the University of Nairobi, is set to join the Kenya school of Law early in the year of 2024.

He is a key asset to the firm and is on a steady path to becoming a key player in the industry under the guide of the firm's senior members.
